

Biloxi-Gulfport, Miss. Wednesday, December 30, 1970

Gulfport news

VISITING PARENTS

Willie Jefferson, radar repairman, U.S. Air Force, Fort Fisher AF Station, Kure Beach, N.C., author of the book Scientific Articles, is spending the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Jefferson, 4703 Alabama Ave., Gulfport. He will return to his station in five days.

Jefferson has completed another book entitled Receding Galaxies, and is working on his third which at present is entitled The Mind.

NORTHWOOD HILLS DECORATION WINNERS

LOVE BIRTH

Mr. and Mrs. Doyle T. Love, Tuscaloosa Ala., announce the birth of their second daughter, Leslie Carol, on Dec. 26 in Tuscaloosa.

The mother is the former Miss Linda Holt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R.M. Holt of Gulfport. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Love of Ackerman, Miss.

GULFPORT ELKS SET ANNUAL DANCE

The annual New Years Eve dance for the Gulfport BPOE 978 Lodge of Elks will be in the convention room of Edgewater Gaf Hotel, Biloxi, on Dec. 31, beginning at 8 p.m.

... now available at